

WV BAR FOUNDATION EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR POSITION

The current West Virginia Bar Foundation Executive Director has given notice that she will be leaving her position. Therefore, the Foundation is in need of a new Executive Director. Founded in 1988, the Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that offers grants for the better administration of justice in the state, funds various projects (including educational projects) and promotes the rule of law. The Executive Director fulfills the Foundation's management duties and assists the Foundation's Board of Directors in carrying out its policies and procedures. The Executive Director, who is an independent contractor, would be expected to work, on average, about thirty hours per month. If interested, please send your resume to P. O. Box 11010, Charleston, WV 25339. Compensation will be set based upon qualifications. Application deadline is March 15, 2026.
